April Highlights

LIVE Coverage of Two Rites of Spring in Arlington
Springtime is upon us, and that means action! You can see the signs of annual renewal in the natural world around us, which is reflected as well in the rhythms of public activities in Arlington. As always, ACMi is committed to providing LIVE coverage of important events in the yearly calendar. This week sees two such events coming back-to-back. The 2017 Patriots' Day Parade takes place on Sunday, April 23, and floats are being constructed, uniforms pressed, and dance routines choreographed in anticipation of the day's festivities! ACMi's live coverage begins at 2 pm on our Public channel.

The very next day, Monday the 24th, sees the opening of this year's Town Meeting. The docket for the 2017 session is packed with issues of great interest to the Arlington populace, from residential zoning changes and new regulations, to Sanctuary Town status, to proposals targeting the medical marijuana dispensary that's been approved in town. Town Meeting sessions will continue every Monday and Wednesday evening until the year's business has all been settled. ACMi, as always, will provide live coverage of every session, as well as re-broadcasting them throughout the week on the Government channel.

Guns and Hoses 2017
It's yet another of Arlington's signature annual events, with teams from the Police and Fire Departments facing off on the Arlington Rec Center ice to benefit Autism Speaks, a leading autism science and advocacy group. This year's Guns and Hoses contest just happened, and once again delighted those in attendance who were there to support one or the other (or perhaps both!) of Arlington's pillars of public safety. You can catch all the action yourself by tuning in to one of the weekly airings on the Public channel.

Student Spotlight – Music & Sports
ACMi covered two All Town String Concerts and the 7th annual Festival of Concert Bands – from the Ottoson Middle School. Our high school sports production team has also made the transition to a new season, with Boys' Volleyball already on the schedule, and coverage of both Boys' and Girls' Lacrosse matches in the offing. Concerts and sports both are perennially among our most popular offerings, so look for them on the Education channel!
