January Highlights

MLK Birthday Observance in Arlington – 30th Anniversary!
 One of the more popular and memorable events of every calendar year in Arlington is the Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Birthday Observance celebration that takes place in the main auditorium at Town Hall. This is the commemoration's 30th anniversary, and ACMI will be there to carry the event LIVE. By tuning in on our Public channel, you can join those gathering to celebrate this American icon for his wisdom, his grace, and his incalculable contributions to the advancement of civil rights in the country. And if you miss it the first time, you'll find it re-airing over the coming weeks on the same channel.

Wondering About Zoning Recodification? ToT has the Answers

The recodification of the zoning by-laws for Arlington is due to be voted on in a Special Town Meeting on February 12. The Arlington Redevelopment Board's recent public hearing on this issue generated a strong response from dozens of residents who attended it, prompting the ARB to schedule a second such forum for Wednesday, January 10. There appears to be a certain amount of both concern and confusion about what exactly is involved in this process of recodification, and what the impact of it will be for Arlington residents and businesses. ACMI's flagship Public Affairs series, Talk of the Town, recently spoke with both the Town Planner and members of the working group that drafted the new version of the by-laws to bring some clarity to the issues. All three interviews will air throughout this coming week in the Talk of the Town slot on the Public channel – if you have questions about either the process or the implications, you'll find the answers here.

In the Tradition Unveils Episode #23 (!)

Member-producer extraordinaire Alan Kaufman continues to generate excellent new programming at a blistering pace. Joining Alan on the latest episode of In the Tradition is his old friend Marc Horowitz. Marc sports both his banjo and a mighty impressive resume, which includes touring with the likes of Tom Paxton and Judy Collins, playing on hundreds of recording sessions, working in Broadway show pits and on Hollywood soundtracks, and a list of former students that include Peter Schwimmer and Béla Fleck! As always, the mix of live music and lively conversation is combustible...and accessible, on our Public channel.
