February Highlights

aCATpella 2018 is a Resounding Success

In August of 2015, Arlington lost a bright young life and beautiful spirit when Catherine Malatesta succumbed to a very rare form of cancer - epithelioid sarcoma – at the age of 16. Her legacy lives on in a very powerful way, as each year the community comes together to enjoy aCATpella, an evening of transcendent a cappella music that both pays tribute to one of Catherine's favorite activities and supports a dedicated fundraising effort on behalf of the Sarcoma Foundation of America and the Catherine J. Malatesta Scholarship Fund. The 2018 lineup was once again stellar, featuring premier ensembles from a number of colleges across Massachusetts as well as the AHS Madrigal Singers, and the event raised more than $40,000! Look for it on our Educational channel, and enjoy!

In the Tradition Goes to Nepal

Well, actually, what Alan Kaufman's traditional music show does in its latest episode is bring Nepal to Arlington! Three outstanding Nepalese musicians paid ACMi a visit in December. The Sarangi is one of the most emblematic of traditional instruments in Nepal, and Shyam Nepali, an acknowledged master who comes from a long line of supreme musicians, displays his extraordinary command of this intriguing stringed instrument. He is joined by Sushil Gautam on jawharp and percussion, and Ranjan Bhudathoki on bamboo flute. All three musicians welcome the opportunity to engage in cross-cultural musical dialog with musicians from other traditions, and this episode showcases the creative and festive interplay between Alan on fiddle and his Nepalese guests. There will be two more episodes coming out of this remarkable visit, both featuring extensive conversation exploring Nepalese culture and these particular musicians and their instruments. It's not to be missed!

Special Town Meeting Coming Up – LIVE of course!

The public meetings presented by the Arlington Redevelopment Board (ARB) to get feedback about the forthcoming recodification of the town's zoning bylaws have been highly animated affairs, with residents expressing both confusion and concern about how the proposed restructuring of the bylaws will affect them. Questions have also been raised about whether the goal of updating this crucial town document to make it more readable without changing its legal substance has been met. Despite the fact that a number of issues appear unresolved, the recodification is heading to Special Town Meeting on Monday, February 12, at 8 pm. It is sure to be a spirited session, which ACMi will carry LIVE on the Government channel. If you miss it, just look for broadcasts on the channel or go to the On Demand tab on our website, acmi.tv.
