May Highlights

Are You Ready for "The Battle of the Bands 2017"?
 One of the red-letter days on the Arlington High School calendar every year occurs on a weekend night late in January. On that evening, hundreds of students, family, and friends gather to cheer on their favorites in "The Battle of the Bands," a good-natured competition showcasing the breadth and variety of musical creativity within the high school, and all in support of a great cause. This year's event continued the successful run, and was sponsored by the STAND Club at the school, with all proceeds donated to a worthy charity. Don't miss a beat, or a riff, on the Education channel!

Beauty and the Beast, Ottoson Style!

Ottoson Middle School's big theatrical production this year was Beauty and the Beast, Jr, and it was a sumptuous feast for the eyes and the ears! The young singers do a great job with the score we have come to know so well, and the story, while familiar, tugs reliably at the heartstrings. Add in the dancing flatware, the menacing wolves, and the singing furniture, and you have a winning take on this beloved fairy tale about very different people finding strength in one another and learning how to love. See for yourself on our Education channel, all week long.

So Young, Yet So Wise

It has been a mighty eventful number of months since last November's ground-shifting election, with lots of soul-searching, activism, celebration, and outrage – in Arlington and way beyond. Many have clamored to be heard, taking part in marches, rallies, and public meetings all over the globe. One demographic it is always refreshing to hear from is politically engaged, socially aware youth, and we are blessed to have that group well represented here in our town. Exhibit A is "After the March: Arlington Students Discuss Activism in America," a panel discussion recently convened by local high schoolers at ACMI's Studio B. The five participants encompass a broad spectrum of backgrounds and perspectives, and they tackle a series of challenging questions and issues with thoughtfulness and wisdom way beyond their years. The result is a penetrating conversation that will enlighten viewers of ALL ages, and provide some much-needed hope for better things to come. Don't miss this one – it's airing on the Education channel throughout the week.
