March Highlights

Elections 2018 – LWV Candidates' Night Carried Live!

In advance of Town Elections coming up on April 7, the League of Women Voters chapter in Arlington once again welcomes all those vying for office to their annual Candidates' Night at Town Hall on Wednesday, March 28 at 8 pm. ACMi will carry this important event LIVE on our Government and Public channels, with rebroadcasts on our Government channel between now and the election. Between this and ACMi's own Candidate Profiles (airing as a block regularly on the Government channel), you will have all the info you need to make a well-informed decision on Election Day. Find out what you want to know, and don't forget to vote on April 7!

AM Garden Springs to Life

ACMi member-producer Alessio Miraglia is an award-winning composer who is the creative force behind a brand-new series exploring the many intersecting points between music and other disciplines like painting, dance, and photography. The AM Garden Show showcases the fertile connections between music and the other arts, and digs into the various ways in which the work - and the lives - of musicians and other creative artists have been enriched by their collaborative adventures. Alessio has always been mindful of these intersections in his career as a composer and performer, and he can draw on an extensive network of fellow artists who share his passion for exploration. The AM Garden Show airs several times a week on the Public channel.

Board of Selectmen Race 2018

There are two positions up for grabs on Arlington's Board of Selectmen this year, and three candidates have tossed their hats into the ring. The field includes incumbent Joe Curro, as well as two challengers – John Hurd and Michael Ruderman. ACMi recently hosted a debate among the three candidates, which will continue to air regularly between now and the election on our Government channel. Tune in to listen to the contenders' responses to a series of questions that include suggestions from Arlington residents, as well as questions posed by the candidates themselves. The Board of Selectmen will be contending with a number of significant issues in the next several years, and it is as important as it has ever been that Arlington citizens get out and vote on April 7.
