April Highlights

AHS Spring Sports on ACMi
Springtime is upon us, and that means action – AHS sports action, specifically! Building on the momentum that began with football and soccer in the fall, and continued throughout the (interminable) winter with hockey and basketball, ACMi's crack sports coverage team is tackling the challenge of covering spring sports, including games that have never been recorded before. Lacrosse fans, take note, because the first of a slate of LAX games is hitting the Education channel this week. You can also look forward to seeing some Boys' Volleyball, Baseball, and Ultimate Frisbee this spring, weather permitting, of course!

Town Meeting Opens with Full Agenda as Always

Town Meeting 2018 opens on Monday, April 23, at 8 pm as usual, ready to tackle this year's agenda of pressing business for Arlington. As always, ACMi was there to provide LIVE coverage of the opening session, as we will every Monday and Wednesday evening until Town Meeting concludes. Those who miss a live airing can find rebroadcasts running throughout the week on the Government channel. If you own a dog, want to do home repairs, worry about noise in your neighborhood – warrant articles addressing these questions and more will be voted on, and you can see and hear the deliberations as they happen, only on ACMi!

Youth Filmmakers on Display

Last month's A-Town Teen Video Festival was a resounding success, as youth filmmakers from Arlington and a number of towns in the area showcased their work in an impressive display of creativity. It was the Festival's fifth year, and the slate of films was the strongest yet. ACMi is delighted to let you see for yourself, as we present the majority of the videos in a block on our Education channel, under the title "A-Town Teen Film Festival."
